

Free from Alcohol

Since May, 1906, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been entirely free from alcohol. If you are in poor health, weak, pale, nervous, ask your doctor about taking this non-alcoholic tonic and alternative. If he has a better medicine, take his. Get the best always. This is our advice.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

A sluggish liver means a coated tongue, a bad breath, and constipated bowels. The question is, "What is the best thing to do under such circumstances?" Ask your doctor if this is not a good answer: "Take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills."

THE HERALD.

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S ROX A KOLA

Miss Maurine McLin, of Jackson, is visiting her cousins, Misses Mildred and Daisy McLin.

J. B. Hollon and family, of Neola, hospitably entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bicknell Sunday.

Attorneys S. G. Sample and G. B. Stamper, of Campton, were here Saturday on legal business.

C. W. Nickell, with Trimble Bros., Mt. Sterling, was a guest of the Cecil House Tuesday night.

Bro. Bicknell preached at Neola Sunday morning and at the Old-field schoolhouse in the afternoon.

J. B. McLin and little daughter, Maurine, of Jackson, were guests of R. J. McLin and wife over Sunday.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Rev. J. P. Bicknell, of our town, is at Livingston, Tenn., assisting Bro. Derthick in a protracted meeting.

Ed M. McNabb, a son of Buen M. McNabb, of the Toliver neighborhood, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Misses Lula Nickell and Virginia Day, with C. F. Kash and son, Karl, were at Jackson Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Asbury James, of Lacy creek, visited his mother, Mrs. Angeline James, from Saturday until Monday.

For Sale—A Victor graphophone with 36 records; will be sold for less than the cost of the records. Apply at this office.

Pups For Sale.—John Ward has five full-blooded bird dog pups for sale. This is a good opportunity to get a fine dog cheap.

Miss Florence Miller, of Louisville, and teacher in the H. G. A., came in last Thursday ready for the opening session of school.

Rev. Sam Henry Elam, of Magoffin county, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of his brother, B. F. Elam, near town.

Edgar and James Alexander and Taylor Taulbee, of Daysboro, attended league services at the Methodist church here Sunday evening.

A good crowd of Hazel Green people enjoyed a grand watermelon feast at the home of Harlan Nickell, near the Amyx school house.

Miss Daisy Day and niece, Miss Rowena Kash, left Tuesday for Torrent, where they will be guests of El Park Hotel for an indefinite period.

For Sale—Two of the Pieratt cottages for less than the lumber and lot can be bought. One acre in each lot; five rooms in each house. Apply at this office.

Dr. A. C. Nickell reports the birth of a boy to the wife of Sam Osborn, of Lacy creek, Thursday night; also, to the wife of Granville McIntosh, of Lacy creek, Tuesday, August 31, a still-born child.

Almost a Murder.

The Lexington Herald of Wednesday week contained a telegram announcing that Joel Stamper, of Torrent, had on Tuesday evening shot his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Lucas, in an attempt to kill Lucas, who it was stated had just married the woman. The wounded woman was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, at Lexington, and on Monday was released as out of danger. But there seems to be doubt as to whether Lucas and the woman are married. He introduced her as his wife, but she referred to him as her sweetheart, and if he is married to her he is a bigamist, as he has a suit pending in the Lee Circuit court for divorce from a second wife, he having been divorced from the first. It is a mixed affair and may lead Lucas to the pen, where he recently served a sentence for manslaughter at Beattyville.

Surveyors at Work.

A corps of surveyors are on the Landsaw fork of Stillwater locating the route for the Mountain Central extension from Campton. This is what has been designated as the upper route. It comes out at the head of Landsaw fork, crosses from Stillwater to Lacy creek at the Jeff Rose place and thence down the Little fork of Lacy creek. The projectors of the road claim that when once the route is determined upon they can grade and put down the rails and ties within 90 days. If they are correct in their surmise the people hereabout can ride on the train from Hazel Green and do their Christmas shopping in Winchester and Lexington.

A Quick Trip.

Uncle Sam Wilson and Mort Cecil made one of the quickest trips on record last Monday. They made all arrangements and preparations Sunday to attend the fair at Mt. Sterling this week, and when 9 o'clock Monday morning came Uncle Sam reported at THE HERALD office that Mort was plowing. They had been to the fair, so Sam says, and report a delightful trip, lauding the fair to the skies and saying the display was better than either the Chicago or St. Louis exhibitions and the racing better than any ever held in Lexington.

Birthday Dinner.

A birthday dinner came off at the home of G. W. Wheeler August 24th, in honor of his father, G. R. Wheeler, it being the 80th anniversary of his birth. Among the noted visitors were Mrs. Benson Davis and grandson, B. E. Davis, of Ezel; Rev. W. R. Davis and Mrs. Pete Everett Gullett of Neola, and Miss Thrasher and Earnest Smith, of McCausey. The old gentleman left on the 26th for Grassy creek and brought Hattie Wheeler home with him. Miss Hattie is teaching the Halsey school.

Hit With a Baseball.

Mrs. Francis Whaley was painfully hurt Sunday by a baseball, pitched by one boy to another. The catcher failed to land it and going astray it hit Mrs. Whaley square in the forehead, cutting a place which took three stitches to close. Dr. A. C. Nickell attended her and left her resting easy. Her many friends are now joking her by saying it served her right; she had no business to be playing ball on Sunday.

Col. Jack Hittenhouse on Tuesday last bought of E. F. Cecil 26 head of yearlings, long yearlings and two-year-old steers. We did not learn the weight or price; but they were a nice bunch in color and general contour. Col. Hittenhouse will drive them to Bourbon county to graze and possibly hold some of them for export trade when they develop in size and weight.

If you want a fine razor—as good as you can buy for $2—call this at office and get one for $1. We also have a few watches, good time keepers, that can be had for $1 each. Don't wait until supply is gone.

Henry Gillaspie, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, was much better Tuesday and it is now thought he will soon be up and about.

Dr. A. M. Laird, of the firm of Dickson & Laird, dentists, of Jackson, is at Hazel Green at the Day House, and will be here two weeks. Call and have your teeth looked over.

Born, to the wife of Robert J. McLin, August 15th, a girl, of which the mother seems especially proud, albeit she has four others just as likely in the eyes of her friends.

The many friends and patients of Dr. C. Hood Williams, who has been confined to his home for five weeks past, will be glad to know that he is now again able to answer all calls.

For Sale.—One 12-horse, portable Aultman-Taylor boiler and engine; also, one 22-inch Bradford corn mill. All in first-class order. For further information apply to F. M. Long, Demund, Ky.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. Caskey's Thursday afternoon and made wine or grape juice for communion services. Refreshments were served, consisting of watermelon and lemonade.

Charley Cecil, of the firm of Cecil Bros., has been suffering with sciatic rheumatism for a week or so past, but was able to get about until Tuesday afternoon when he took to his bed with malarial fever.

G. W. Johnson, who has been touring some of the blue grass counties for a week or so past with the view of locating, returned Monday without having contracted for any farm, though he may do so later.

"It is hard," said a man the other day, "to get up any enthusiasm in this town." This is true of any town. Particularly if a man is compelled to go down into his pocket for money to back his enthusiasm.

The Gyp theatrical troupe gave an entertainment at Daysboro last Tuesday night, which is said to have been the best performance from a financial view that they have yet given. Ellis Johnson gave excursion rates on his hay wagon, taking fifteen at half rates, or 15 cents a head.

Prof. M. V. Roberts and family left Monday for a visit to relatives and friends in Owsley county. The professor will work in the interest of Hazel Green Academy meantime and Miss Lola Ambrose, sister of Mrs. Roberts, who has been visiting her here for some time, will go to her home, at Berea, after visiting awhile in Owsley.

Elsewhere in this issue of our paper Ellsworth Lacy, of Rardin, Ill., advertises his farm on Lacy creek for sale, and states that he will sell at a bargain if a buyer shows up within the next 30 days. The farm is well known as the Will Crucey farm and is quite a desirable home. Go and look at it and then write Mr. Lacy as to terms.

Zeke McClure, of Grassy creek, died Saturday of typhoid fever and was buried Sunday. Mr. McClure was about 60 years of age, well known in Morgan and Wolfe and leaves besides his own family a host of friends. He was a prominent man in county affairs and politics, and very generally liked by all who knew him.

Two men representing the State Board of Health were in town Tuesday looking over and inspecting the stores which handle staple drugs. They also left some stringent orders in regard to the sale of poisonous drugs like morphine, etc. Their names were not ascertained by "Our Man About Town," but they went to Rittenhouse Ranch from here.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Shed Williams, of the Moorefield neighborhood, in Nicholas county, has realized over $400 from one brood sow in thirteen months.

While talking to friends immediately after finishing supper, John Venter, age 61 years, died suddenly of heart failure at Boones Fork, in Letcher county.

A cloudburst on Middle creek, near Prestonsburg, last week, caused that stream to become so swollen that many houses and barns were washed away.

Miss Mayme Johnson, who resides near Franklin, was thrown from a buggy and became entangled in the wheels. While severely bruised, she escaped without serious injury.

The general store of R. C. Hill, at Beattyville, was broken into last Friday, but it is not known what amount of goods were stolen. There is no clue as to who did the work.

Night riders set fire to two large stacks of wheat belonging to Mrs. John Strube, in Robertson county. The allegation is that Mrs. Strube refused to sign the tobacco pooling pledge. The band was composed of 25 men.

Smith Cobb, an employe of a sawmill in Jessamine county, met with a horrible accident at the mill. A slab which he was removing broke, throwing him across the saw, cutting his hip and severing his spine. He died twenty minutes later.

While feeding a wounded crane which his father had captured and imprisoned in a wire cage, the 14-year-old son of A. D. Leach, of Centerville, in Bourbon county, was viciously attacked by the bird and the sight of one eye destroyed.

At Dry Fork church, in Casey county, John and Addie Chapman engaged in a fight with John Luttrell and family. Addie Chapman and Luttrell are dead, and John Chamley and wife, son-in-law and daughter of Luttrell, were both seriously wounded.

Fred Victor, of Smith Branch, killed eight copperhead snakes one day last week. While working on his farm he ran into a den of snakes and succeeded in killing all of them. This seems to be the record snake story for Greenup county this year.

Constable Philip Joseph was fatally and Noah Wadkins seriously wounded by Edward Conley, at Lyvin, in Greenup county, while trying to serve a warrant charging him with carrying concealed weapons. Conley was shot through the abdomen by the constable.

Mrs. Henry E. Youtsey, wife of the only man who is serving sentence for complicity in the murder of William Goebel, has filed papers in Clark Circuit court for divorce. The cause given in the petition is condemnation as a felon and separation for over five years.

Under the will of John C. Latham, the rich New York banker who died August 18, his home town, Hopkinsville, secures two public parks and $30,000, and Grace Episcopal church, of the same place, the income of $50,000. The rest of his estate is divided among his relatives and employes.

The Harrodsburg Herald says that the biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, and if it busts for trusting gets cussed for busting. And there you are. Cut out this article and send it to us with what you owe on subscription.

During an electrical storm Ben Poer, of Clark county, had three cows killed by lightning, two of which were valued at $75 each, and the other nearly as valuable. His son, James, was returning to the house from the barn at the time and was hurled to the ground where he remained senseless for some time.

Lucinda Davis, colored, of Louisville, may have never won a cake, but she certainly gained distinction as a consumer of melons. At a watermelon eating contest she ate four large luscious melons and captured the prize. The prize was a big watermelon. Lucinda ate this one also and drifted to the other world.

The State Federation of Woman's Clubs in Kentucky three years ago began a campaign against illiteracy. It formed 108 school improvement leagues in the 119 counties of the state and offered $300 as a prize to the rural school that did the most to make itself a model school. The prize has just been awarded to the Buckhorn school in Owsley county.

Two Farms For Sale.

A lot of fine tobacco land, plenty timber, good buildings, everlasting fine water, fine fruit, 224 acre farm, price, $2,800; 100 acre farm, price, $2,000, reserving five acres a part of which is in ginseng; easy terms.

Nearest town is Clay City. For further description write the owner, J. W. Mize, Vaughns Mill, Ky.
